the DREAMHOUSE

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year!!

Can we talk?

"I know it's a school night and dinner time but I need to talk to you guys tonight if possible."

I read this text as I was preparing dinner one evening. Instantly my "like to be fully prepared for every conversation" mind began to speculate the fate of our evening. Issues with a house mate? Bad news? Something troubling?

A short time later she sat across from us at our dining room table. "I just need some guidance," she said as she went on to share about two possible opportunities and just needed to talk through the decision and how to proceed. My heart leaped. Not just for the good news (and the fact that we didn't have to deal with house drama). But this was a young lady who was forced to grow up at a young age, who hadn't had the guidance or support she deserved. What an honor to be in this role and that she would even consider asking our opinion or seeking our guidance.

Perhaps it's a small portion of what Holy Spirit feels when we press in and seek His wisdom. We ended our conversation in prayer, together submitting the ultimate decisions to the Lord. How beautiful to know that as God has positioned the Dream House to be a place of support and guidance, we can look to Him as the ultimate source of it all.

"What a privilege. What an honor. Just to dwell within His house."

Stay connected. Great things are happening!
