the DREAMHOUSE

Are they getting this? Are they with me? I thought to myself as I read Matthews account of the crucifixion of Jesus during our Thursday growth group. As I looked up from my Bible, instantly questions came, comments were given. And there we were, immersed in the wonder of Jesus' sacrifice.

"How could they miss it?" Someone asked as we talked about the reality that Jesus' own people nailed him to the cross. And as I looked at these beautiful ladies who had overcome huge obstacles, who were in the midst of rising above the odds, who had beautiful dreams and precious hearts...I was so grateful that they weren't missing it. That we had these moments to share together...

These moments are the motivation behind it all. Encountering Jesus, their risen Savior!

Thank you for your role in making these moments possible!

The Need is Great

"I feel as though the dream house can be like a steppingstone. Having somewhere safe to stay to be even more productive than I am now. It's something I've never really had. A support system to help you reach goals and become a better person is what I've been longing for my whole life so it's great to see I could possibly have a chance at that."

Longing for my whole life. In the last couple months we have been receiving more calls than ever before from young ladies who are eligible for what the Dream House has to offer. People truly wanting to heal, grow, and feel safe. People longing for an opportunity.

So we ask for your prayers. We currently have more eligible applicants than available rooms. Please for pray for Holy Spirit wisdom as we discern who He is calling us to serve as residents and that He ultimately meets the needs and longings of each one of their hearts, whether through the Dream House or somewhere else.

Welcome Skylar Joy!

We are excited to announce that our baby girl, Skylar Joy was born on April 22nd!

Thank you so much to everyone who were praying over Shannon and Skylar during the past few weeks!
